FALL FELLOWSHIP

The Fall Fellowship is the highlight of O.A. activities every year. This year is no exception.

The 1980 Fall Fellowship for Lodge #413 will be held November 14, 15, and 16 at the Tri-County Baptist Youth Camp in Wynne. The Fellowship has been held here for the past 2 years with great success. The camp is very easy to find. Go two miles past the turnoff to Wynne on highway 64, then turn left at the big sign. Follow this road for approximately one mile and you will be set for a great weekend of fun and learning. The registration this year will be $7.00. Included in this fee are meals, cabin, and one patch. If we have any extra patches they will be sold Saturday afternoon to those Arrowmen who attended the sessions. Registration will begin Friday night and will be continued on Saturday morning.

The Lodge officers have been working very hard to see that this Fall Fellowship will be the best ever. The Fall Fellowships in past years have been following an upward trend and we hope to continue this trend. This year there will be three great sessions. First there will be a mysterious session called "Let's Make An Ordeal". Then a session on the upcoming Conclave which we will host, and last an Indian Costuming Session. Following the final session there will be Dance Competition as usual. All chapters are encouraged to participate. Saturday night in the tradition of the big shows, Lodge 413 will present Extravaganza IV. Randy Jenkins has been working very hard on this year's show and he promises "It will be fantastic!"

This year's Fellowship is a must for every Arrowman to attend. This year our Lodge will host the Conclave so it is very important for every member to attend the Fellowship to be able to help this spring. The "Legend" encourages every Arrowman to be in attendance and to bring another member who might not have come. Get ready, make your plans, and be there for a great weekend of fun and fellowship.

AS THEY SAW IT . . .

"They made us many promises, more than I can remember, but they never kept but one; they promised to take our land, and they took it."

— Red Cloud, Sioux Chief

"You said that you wanted to put us upon a reservation, to build us houses and make us medicine lodges. I do not want them. I was born upon the prairies, where the wind blew free and there was nothing to break the light of the sun. I was born where there were no enclosures and where everything drew a free breath. I want to die there and not within walls . . . but it is too late. The white man has the country which we loved, and we only wish to wander on the prairie until we die."

— Ten Bears of the Comanches

"I am tired of fighting. Our chiefs are killed. Looking Glass is dead. The old men are dead. It is cold and we have no blankets. The little children are freezing to death. My people, some of them, have run to the hills, and have no blankets, no food; no one knows where they are - perhaps freezing to death. I am tired; my heart is sick and sad. From where the sun now stands I will fight no more forever."

—Chief Joseph of the Nez Percés

"There was no hope on earth, and God seemed to have forgotten us. Some said they saw the Son of God; others did not see Him. If He had come, He would do some great things as He had done before. The people did not know; they did not care. They snatched at the hope. They screamed like crazy men to Him for mercy. They caught at the promises they heard He had made."

— Red Cloud

"I did not know then how much was ended. When I look back now from this high hill of my old age, I can still see the butchered women and children lying heaped and scattered all along the crooked gulch as plain as when I saw them with eyes still young. And I can see that something else died there in the bloody mud, and was buried in the blizzard. A people's dream died there. It was a beautiful dream . . . the nation's hope is broken and scattered. There is no center any longer, and the sacred tree is dead."

— Black Elk

The old men say the earth only endures. You spoke truly. You are right.

The Earth Only Endures,
a Sioux chant

VIGIL

On May 17, at camp Cedar Valley, Pine Trail Reservation. The annual Vigil Honor ceremony was held. The Vigil Honor Committee, at the past business meeting, served ten outstanding arrowmen to be the recipients of this Honor for the year 1980. This is the highest honor a lodge can bestow upon an Arrowmen. We congratulate these ten deserving men for the service they have given and will give to our lodge.

GALLOP BECOMES DISTRICT EXEC

Brad Gallop, former lodge chief, has decided to pursue a career in professional scouting. On August 1, 1980 Brad became the district executive for the Chisolm Trail District in the Black Beaver Council. This council is located in beautiful southwestern Oklahoma and is headed up by Harold Drummunds, formerly of EAAC. Brad was an active member of our council for over 15 years. He is an Eagle Scout and a Vigil Honor member of the Order of the Arrow. Brad attended the 1973 National Jamboree and the '75', '77', and '79', National Order of the Arrow Conferences. Brad has also attended National Camp School and was program director at summer camp in 1979. He has also received numerous awards for continuous service to our lodge over the past 9 years. Every member of our lodge wishes Brad the best of luck in his career in Pro-Scouting.

FOR OUR FOUNDER

Here we stand,
 Surrounded by the trees of the forest
 Standing as brothers in service,
 With Hearts and wills united
 Looking upward in remembrance,
 Of a man who introduced us
 To the pathways of service.
 Looking upward for a chance
 To catch the higher vision
 His vision was that we aim high and serve
 That we weld tightly every link
 His passing comes as a thing of the spirit
 Reminding each of us of our dedication
 Of service to God and country
 Each must remain mindful,
 Of the tradition he inspired
 But his passing will only inspire
 new horizons of service
 For he set the foundations for the future
 He has shown us the need
 It is our duty to meet the challenge
 Let us catch the higher vision,
 Standing here as leaders in camping
 For his life was that of the Arrow
 His ideals were straight
 His point keen and aimed high
 The course he set was undeviating
 Directed onward and upward
 We as members now stand ready
 To continue to live by the principles and ideals
 Of this brotherhood of cheerful service

ORDER OF THE ARROW

CONCLAVE

On april 24th, 25th, and 26th, an unfamiliar site will be seen at Pine Trail Reservation. Approximately 150 Arrowmen from across the state will converge on PTR for the 1981 SC-1A section order of the arrow conclave. Every year one of the six lodges in our section hosts the conclave this year it is HI LO HA CHY'A-LA'S turn to be the conclave host lodge.

Conclave "81" promises to be a great experience. There will be exciting sessions on Indian Costuming, Induction Enrichment, and Programing. Because this Conclave will be held in our camp every Arrowmen should make an all out effort to attend.

It is also the responsibility of every member of our lodge to help whenever and wherever needed to help in making our Conclave one to be proud of. It is imperative for every Arrowmen to do his part to make the Conclave a big success. The "LEGEND" encourages every OA member to write to the address below and indicate where you feel you can best serve at the upcoming conclave.

PURPOSE

Everyone in the order is actually doing ceremonial work. The purpose of the order is:

To recognize those who are fulfilling
 The scout promise in their daily lives,

To help them develop the promise
 Into a life purpose,

To support the camping traditions
 That foster this development,

And to spread the inspiration of the Promise to other scouts.

This is also the purpose of ceremonial work. The induction is a pattern for success in this effort. The words and movement of the ceremonies give sound and shape to an invisible process. The ceremonies show us what goes on inside an individual who is turning the scout promise into a life purpose.

At the Franklin museum in Philadelphia there is a model of a human heart so large that visitors can walk into it to see how the heart pumps blood. The circle of the order is a similar model. We take the candidate inside a model of himself, to enable him to accomplish the real feat on his own.

FROM THE CHIEF

There have been several happenings since the last lodge newsletter, a lodge wide ordeal, induction of Brotherhood members, summer camp, and several other meaningful experiences.

The council wide ordeal was a complete success, in addition to getting camp set up, and having a great time, we inducted sixty-three new ordeal members. Likewise, the lodge officers helped 35 Arrowmen seal their membership in our order at the three Brotherhood ceremonies held at summer camp. This year, camp as a whole was also a success. Attendance of scouts was up from last year. However, every Arrowmen should realize his responsibility to promote camp and thereby increase attendance. Moreover several other important happenings have taken place. Namely, a national leadership seminar which was attended by the lodge officers.

We've come along way since the last business meeting. However we have several more key activities to attend before the year is out. The upcoming fellowship is the most important of these. I urge every Arrowman to make an effort to attend. Lets all be there.....

Chiefly speaking,
