The fall Fellowship is the highlight of all the O.A. functions each year. Please attend this O.A. function. The registration fee this year will be $8.00 which will cover meals, cabin, and one patch. If we have any extra patches, they will be sold Saturday afternoon. Registration will begin Friday afternoon and will be continued on Saturday morning.

There will be as usual, Indian competition Saturday after lunch. We encourage all chapters and individuals to participate. There will be Old Style, Feathers, Large Group, Small Group, and Solo competition. Even if you are not going to compete, bring your Indian costume, as we are going to have a POW-WOW.

There will be some great sessions at the 1981 Fall Fellowship. Greg Cole and Chris Baker will instruct a session and present a slide show on the 1981 National Order of the Arrow Conference. There will be a session on orientation for new members. We will have a Meet a Big Dog Luncheon, also for the new Ordeal members. Everyone will be able to get a detailed look at three of the four major styles of dancing and how to make two of those styles of costumes. You will be able to get hands on training on how to make bustles, beadwork, moccasins, a ceremonial costume, etc. If you come to the Fall Fellowship, you will be one of the lucky ones to witness the fifth annual Extravaganza.

To get to the Tri-County Baptist Youth Camp, go two miles east of Wynne on highway 64, turn left at the big sign on your right. Follow this road for approximately 1 mile and you will be set for a great weekend of fun, fellowship, and good food! I hope to see you there!! You need to bring your own sleeping gear. Conclave Chiefs Hard at Work

1981 CONCLAVE

HUGE SUCCESS

The 1981 SC-1A Conclave was held at PTR, Hi Lo Ha Chy A-LA Lodge #413 was the host. The majority of the people who attended this conclave say it was the best one ever. The Conclave was held on April 24, 25, & 26 at illustrious Camp Cedar Valley. There was plenty to do in this short amount of time. We had a little over 200 arrowmen from all around the state attend this function.

The Indian competition was outstanding at the conclave. In the Old Style Competition, 1st place went to John Henderson, Jr. from Quapaw Lodge #160; 2nd Place went to our Lodge Chief, Price Marshall. In the Feather dance competition, 1st place went to Nelson Williams from Wazahazzee Lodge #366; 2nd place went to Jeff Vestal from Lodge #413. The small group competition went to Lee Crawford and Stan Caperton from Lodge #413. The solo competition went to Nelson Williams for an excellent Hoop Dance. The best all around dancer was given to Price Marshall. We did not only have great competition we had a POW-WOW so everyone who did not compete could dance just to have a good time.

There were eight excellent sessions instructed at the conclave. These sessions were: The Adult Role in Scouting; Induction Enrichment; History of O.A. Section organization; Using your resources; Indian Costuming; Camp Promotion; and National Organization. Phil Kahler did an excellent job of organizing and presenting these sessions to the arrowmen who attended the conclave. Even the food was excellent, which is something you will not find too often when they are having to cook for a group that large. But with people like Chef Boy Barbarotto, Doc Walker, Bill Winkler, Ray Jones, Ray Miller and John Miller, you can't go wrong.

The section Officers election was held Sunday Morning after church services. The successors of these offices are Section Chief - Price Marshall from Hi Lo Ha Chy A-LA Lodge #413; Section First-Vice Chief - John Covert from Wazahazzee Lodge #366; and Section Secretary-John Henderson, Jr. from Quapaw Lodge #160.

Sunday Morning after the elections, Jeff Vestal extinguished the candle and Host Lodge Chief - Price Marshall and Conclave Coordinator, Randy Jenkins declared the 1981 SC-1A Conclave officially over. Those of you who did not attend missed the best conclave in 6 years.

VIGIL

On May 15, 16, and 17, at Pine Trail Reservation, the annual Vigil Honor ceremony was held. This is the highest honor a lodge can bestow upon an arrowman.

1981 NATIONAL ORDER Of the Arrow Conference

This summer at the University of Austin, Texas one of the most important Order of the Arrow events in the past two years took place. On August 10 through the 14, a little over 3,500 arrowmen from across the nation gathered in Austin for the 1981 National Order of the Arrow Conference.

On the first day of the conference they officially named Brad Starr and Kevin Moll the 1981-1983 National Chief and Vice-Chief respectively. Featured in the opening show was an outstanding example of a candidate's impressions of the Ordeal Ceremony and how they affected him. The very tired arrowmen retired to a good night of rest in preparation for the week ahead of fun and fellowship.

The days of Conference '81 were full of fun and learning. In the mornings you could go to an Indian Pow-Wow, take part in the Boomtown Bust, see the exhibits at the Armadillo Fair, or participate in the athletic Flame Games. In the afternoons a variety of training sessions were offered. An arrowman could learn about camp promotion, inductions, membership retention, all aspects of Indian costumes, and much much more.

The Indian Dance competition and pow-wow was a highlight of the '81 NOAC. The newly elected Miss Indian America presided over the finals in the dance competition and danced in the pow-wow. There were many fine dancers and expertly crafted costumes at the competition.

The closing show entitled "The Spirit of Achievement, First a Spark-Now A Flame" told a story of outstanding Americans such as Thomas Jefferson, The Wright Brothers, and Thomas Edison. The achievements of these great men served as an inspiration to all.

These 10 young men and 2 adults represented our lodge in the '81 NOAC and were exposed to a week of fun and learning. The new ideas they brought back will be of great benefit to the lodge.

INSPIRATION

Brother, when the mouth speaks,

Ears listen ---

And ears forget

But when the heart speaks,

Other hearts listen,

And the heart that hears

Does not forget

CHIEFLY SPEAKING

Dear Brothers,

The time is swiftly approaching for the most important event of the year for the Order of the Arrow, the Fall Fellowship. It is of the utmost importance for every arrowman to be in attendance. Whether you are a brand new Ordeal member, a chapter officer, or a Scoutmaster THE O.A. NEEDS YOU NOW.

This years fall fellowship promises to be one of the best ever. In the past there have been complaints that there was nothing to do. Well for the arrowmen who wants to get involved this will be the perfect opportunity. There will be a variety of learning sessions, plenty of fun and fellowship, good food, and something for every arrowmen to take part in.

The Order of the Arrow is like a chain. It is just as strong as its weakest link. I am asking every O.A. member to come to the Fellowship, get involved in the activities, and strengthen your link in the chain of brotherhood. Draw strength from the words of Allowat Sakima:

He who follows such a pathway in unwavering cheerful service will be seen by many others and, by inspiration, lead them. I challenge every Arrowman to be an inspiration. I ask each of you to lead the way in Brotherhood, Cheerfulness, and Service. As always I respectfully remain

Yours in the Wimachtendienk,
Price
