FALL FELLOWSHIP

Attention Arrowmen, an important date is about to be given to you. Making the time for the highlight of the year and most important of lodge functions. If you have not guessed it by now! The 1982 Fall Fellowship for Lodge #413 is coming up and will be held November 5, 6, and 7th at the Tri-County Baptist Youth Camp in Wynne. The registration fee is only $10.00 and covers meals, cabin, and packet & patch. If we have any extra patches, they will be sold Saturday to those Arrowmen who attended the sessions. Registration will begin Friday and will be continued on Saturday morning.

All the Lodge Officers, along with many others have been working extra hard to see that this Fall Fellowship becomes an example of the best ever. This year we see three great sessions, the first on Camp Promotions. Followed by another on Using Resources, and last on Indian custom & Drumming session. Closing out the afternoon will be the Indian Competition, consisting of old style, feathers, large & small groups, and solo competition. Everyone is encouraged to participate, if not in the competition, in the Pow-wow.

Special activities include the Big Day luncheon for new members, slide shows, and the Mystery Show Saturday night.

This year's fellowship is a must for every arrowmen to attend. Due to the many new ideas to be decided on affecting you and the Lodges the "Legend" encourages every Arrowmen to be in attendance and to bring another member who might not have come. To get to the Tri-County Baptist Youth Camp, go two miles east of Wynne on highway 64, turn left at the big sign on your right. Follow this road for approximately 1 mile and you will be set for a great weekend of fun, and fellowship. Hope to see you there!

INDIAN DANCE COMPETITION

NLS

On the weekend of the 20, 21, and 22nd, eleven members of Lodge 413 attended the National Leadership Seminar at LSU in Ruston, La. Seven of the members which included; Donald Belk, Greg Cole, Greg Spence, Don Larson, Phil Vines, Jack Cothren, and Brad Poindexter went through sessions varring from Camp Promotions to Inductions.

The other four: Brad Gallop, Price Marshall, Randy Jenkins, and Jamie Johnson all were invited to be on the NLS staff and help with instructing sessions. Among the staff members were Nat'l Vice Chief Kevin Moll, and many past National and Regional officers. Out of the fifty participants, Lodge 413 had the best showing and participation which allowed all participants to bring back knowledge helpful to the administration of lodge functions. Keep up the good work guys.

SUMMER CAMP

Well with summer winding down, and school starting up. Those precious memories of summer camp become all that is left of the best year ever! Camp this year ran for four weeks, including staff week and had approximately four hundred and forty-three scouts and leaders attend. With a staff of forty-five, all things seemed to run smooth. As usual, there was the regular camp activities of campfires, Indian dances and Brotherhood ceremonies to interest O.A. members in closing. I would like to remind everyone about our duty as honor campers, to promote camp, which will keep those memories coming.

CAMP STAFF

VIGIL

On May 21,22, and 23, at Camp Cedar Valley, Pine Trails Reservations. The annual Vigil Honor ceremony was held. The Vigil Honor Committee, at the past Business Meeting, served two outstanding Arrowmen to be recipients of this Honor for the year 1982. This is the highest honor a lodge can bestow upon an Arrowmen. We congratulate these two deserving men for the service they have given and will give to our lodge.

Congratulations guys, keep up the good work.

1982 INDUCTIONS

Both of this years Inductions were held at beautiful PTR, starting with the Ordeal in June followed by the Brotherhood ceremonies each week at camp. In June, six chapters put seventy-three candidates through the Ordeal. Congratulations to these new members and welcome.

The three Brotherhood ceremonies held each Friday night throughout camp put thirty-seven deserving Arrowmen through the ceremony. Congratulations to these deserving Arrowmen and keep up the good work.

DUES

A lot of Arrowmen need to look at their Order of the Arrow membership cards and see when they expire. If you don't have a card marked 8-31-83 you are no longer a member. If not, send $3.50 with your name, address, town unit number, district, whether you are an Ordeal, Brotherhood, or Vigil honor member. Send this to:

Don Larson
Lodge 413 Secretary
P.O. Box 146
Jonesboro, AR 72401

Dues will be checked at the Fall Fellowship. If your dues are found to be delinquent, the next Legend will be withheld until payment.

JACK RETIRES

One of the purposes of the Order of the Arrow is to exemplify the Spirit of cheerful service. This is something Jack Roy has been doing for many years. Jack, a long time professional scouter from the EAAL will be retiring at the end of October. One of Jack's many accomplishments during his career in Scouting, was the founding of Lodge # 413 as well as Abooiapaugun #399. Jack has served as District Executive, Staff Advisor and Director of Special Programs for more than thirty years, and has been camp Director for both the "New" and "Old" Cedar Valley, since the late 1940's. He was also one of the original four Virgil Honor Members from our lodge. You could not record all of Jack's many accomplishments in just one article, but it can be safely said that no one person has more positively affected Scouting in Eastern Arkansas than Jack Roy.

There is to be a Retirement Dinner at the Carl R. Reng Center, ASU, on Friday October 29. The cost is $25.00 per plate. For more information, contact the Scout office. We the members of Lodge #415, Hi Lo Ha Chy' A-La, salute Jack Roy and wish him a happy retirement.

GALLOP BECOMES STAFF ADVISOR

With the upcoming retirement of our Order of the Arrow Staff Advisor, Jack Roy, it has been recently announced by our Scout executive Ken Ackeret that Brad Gallop, L'Anguille District Executive will assume the duties and responsibilities of that position. Brad has already begun his responsibilities by sitting in on the recently held Lodge Executive Committee Meeting as Staff Advisor.

Brad has been an active member of our council for over fifteen years. He is also an Eagle Scout and Vigil Honor member of the OA, and has attended many National & Regional Events. Brad became a DE in August of 1980 and has since then been a Program Director at Camp. We all know Brad will do an outstanding job and we wish him luck.

TRANSPORTATION

If you are planning to attend the 1982 Fall Fellowship and you don't have any means of transportation. Please contact one of these men from your chapter, and we will try to arrange something.

REFLECTIONS

From the darkness, from the forest, we have come with words of warning, bringing tokens of a struggle, an ordeal approaching swiftly as a flock of field crows flying black across the sun. My friends, as Kichkinet your guide, I bid you leave all daily cares behind you, leave the crowd and its opinions, lift your thoughts like sparks when from the fires' heart they shoot up like arrows from the bow bent backward, from the bowstring smothered with beeswax, loosed upon a lofty journey!

Thus do you appear to others, on the path of cheerful service. It is not an easy journey. Sometimes even friends will mock you, tempt you to betray your promise, test your resolution often, often try to make you faithless. All the world may seem against you and the path seem dark and lonely. All your strength will be required when you face the isolation which a leader often faces. So tonight beneath the heavens, be you steadfast as the Polestar, self-reliant, undiscouraged.

Then tomorrow we will let the spirit fill us with the gladness of a dawning, of a springtime, of beginning. This ordeal is but a shadow of the rigors of the journey, but its joys also are shadows of the brighter, greater beauty in a life of cheerful service.

Now with courage on this first step follow me, and these my brothers. Let us try to find the Arrow!

CREDITS

Thanks goes to Brad Gallop for pictures used in this edition of "The Legend". Jack Cothren, Greg Spence, Greg Cole, Jeff Vestal, Price Marshall and Brad Gallop helped address "The Legend". Special thanks to Greg Spence for his work on "The Legend". "Reflections" was taken from the manual for the Ordeal. This edition was compiled and edited by Don Larson. Thanks guys.

CHIEFLY SPEAKING

Dear Brothers,

Once again the time has come for our Annual Fall Fellowship, a weekend of guaranteed fun and learning. I urge each and every Arrowman to make plans to attend, today. The chapter chiefs, lodge officers, advisors and myself have put in many hours of preparation to insure the success of the Fellowship. However, there is still one very very important link of the chain missing. That is your attendance and participation on the 1st weekend in October. On behalf of all those who are working to make this event a success, I once again strongly urge you to attend.

I would like this opportunity to congratulate each new ordeal member who was inducted this past June and also each Arrowman who sealed his membership in the order by successfully completing the requirements for brotherhood. I would like to extend a personal invitation for all new members to attend the fellowship. There will be a special event in your honor and several sessions where you can learn exactly what the O.A. is all about.

As many of you know, Jack will be retiring on October 31, 1982. On behalf of every member of Hi Lo Ha Chy' A-La Lodge 413, I would like to express our most sincere thanks for the many years of tireless efforts and for the excellent example of cheerful service to others that Jack has provided for us. The success that our lodge has enjoyed for the past decade is due in no small part to the dedication of our lodge professional advisor, Jack Roy.

Once again I urge every Arrowman to attend the Fall Fellowship; it is definitely time that we "Ponder that which is our Purpose". I look forward to seeing each of you in Wynne.

Yours in Wimachtendienk,
Price
