On the weekend of June 2-4 CCV was hit by the Order for the annual Lodge wide Ordeal.

Friday night registration headed up by Denny Bubrig began while final ceremonial preparations were completed. Later that night Arrowmen and candidates were witness to the excellent Pre-Ordeal ceremonies performed by each respective Chapter pairing.

Saturday morning found work beginning bright and early to fix up camp. It also found Lodge First Vice Chief Ray Williams checking on ceremony preparation throughout the day. Lodge Second Vice Chris Wilson served as Ordeal Master making sure that all were hard at work. Special thanks goes to Paul Tarver, Jeff Puryear, Damon Cluck, Tay Jarrett, Rob Ballew, Jesse Cartwright, Mike Caffey, Bobby Norman, Jerry Sallee, Steven Williams, Justin Parker, Michael Jackson, Lloyd Linn, and Mike Nickolson for serving as the Platoon Leaders and Sergeants. Later on that night 108 candidates went through the Ordeal Ceremonies to become official members of our Order. Thanks to Wally Jackson, Food Chairman, Wayne Grommett, Wayne Jackson, Jerry Cavaness, Murl White, Doc Walker, John Aldridge, Glenn Reed, George Haag, and Aubry Pervin for serving some fabulous meals and to Bill Winkler for acquiring the food used.

Sunday morning a short Chapel service was held followed by the Vigil Call-out Ceremony. The Lodge Business meeting followed where people serving in Key Capacities were recognized. The weekend was then closed with the singing of the Order of the Arrow song.

HI' LO HA CHY' A-LA REPRESENTED WELL AT CONCLAVE

Lodge 413 sent a strong contingent to the 1990 Section 3 Conclave held at Camp Cherokee, Oklahoma on the weekend of April 27-29. The Lodge was represented in various aspects, from Indian Dancing to Section Administration.

Throughout the day Saturday, Lodge 413 had Arrowmen at all ends of the Conclave. Jesse Cartwright served as CVC for Indian Events this year and among the various judges for the Indian events was Sam Reyna judging the dance competition. The Lodge was strongly represented in the dancers as well. Chad Coats took first place in Strait Dancing and outfit. Andy McGlawn took first place in Old Style Outfit with Jason Skinner taking third, in the dancing competition Nathan Reyna came in first place with Jason Skinner taking third. Bobby Norman came in second in Fancy Dance Competition. Congratulations to these dancers on a job well done.

Later that night came the Section Show and yet again Lodge 413 had someone in a key spot with Donald Belk serving as Shows Advisor and being the "Electronic Wizard".

Sunday morning the Lodge received awards during the Section Business Meeting. For traveling the farthest, the Lodge received the Man-Miles award, Arrowman Donald Gooch received a Training Activities award for attending the most Training Sessions during the weekend.

The next Conclave weekend will be held on April 26-28, 1991. Make plans now to attend an exciting weekend!

NOAC FUN FOR ALL!

From August 11 to August 18, 22 Arrowmen from Lodge 413 attended the 1990 National Order of the Arrow Conference in Bloomington, Indiana.

Donald Belk, Joel Linn, Paul Pierce, Joseph Kueter, Ray Williams, Chris Wilson, Denny Bubrig, Joe Blundell, Jerry Sallee, Jason Skinner, Nathan Reyna, John Pouncey, David Dancer, Daniel Kueter, Wayne Jackson, Wayne Gromett and Michael Jackson began the journey which would find many interesting things happen to the group on the way to a stop in Terre Haute, Indiana where the group spent the night.

Once at the NOAC site the contingent met five more 413 Arrowmen Donald Gooch, Richard Nace, Conrad Eberhard, Travis MacElroy, and Ed Labenne had traveled separately but quickly jumped into the thick of things with every one.

Among the many things at this year's NOAC were several sports competitions. Our Lodge entered the Volleyball Competition with the team of Joel Linn, John Pouncey, Paul Pierce, Daniel Kueter, Ray Williams, and Chris Wilson. They did extremely well compiling a 3-0 record before losing in the regional quarterfinals.

Chris Wilson, John Pouncey, Nathan Reyna, Jason Skinner and David Dancer participated in the Old Style Dance Competition, all did an outstanding job with John Pouncey making the National Finals.

The "Brothers Wayne" along with Captain Jerry Sallee and Joe Blundell attended several Indian Crafts and dancing classes to return with up to date knowledge for the Lodge.

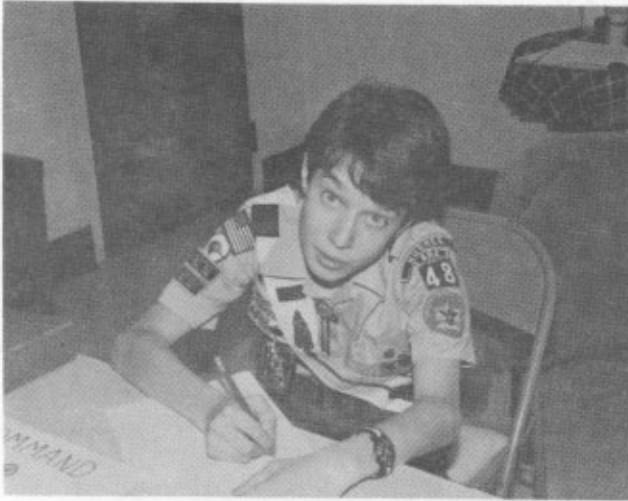

Several Lodge members had the chance to work on the Regional Level by getting involved in the Region Show. Joseph Kueter served as Show Director, Donnie Belk was one of the electronic "specialists", and several other members participated in the cast. This also provided them with a chance to work with two past Lodge members Randy Jenkins and Brad Gallop who now live in Texas.

After the Conference the group traveled to St. Louis, Missouri, where they were able to see a Cardinals game the night of their arrival. They then traveled to Eureka, Missouri where they were able to enjoy a day at the Six Flags Amusement Park.

The next morning the group traveled to Grant's Farm where they were able to see the home of Civil War General Ulysses S. Grant and the stables where the Budweiser Clydsdales were kept and the buggy collection of August Busch III. Afterwards, the group returned to Jonesboro.

The trip was very exciting and the next NOAC is scheduled for 1992 at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville. Make plans now to attend a fun filled week in August of '92!

CHIEFLY SPEAKING

My Brothers,

I hope this edition of The Legend finds you all doing well. I have just returned from the National Order of the Arrow Conference in Bloomington and I can speak for all that attended what we had a great time. If you have never attended a conference you are missing a great event. All Arrowmen that attended gained a great amount of knowledge that they can pass on to Arrowmen in their chapters. I would also like to congratulate all Arrowmen who participated in the Indian Dancing competition. They represented Lodge 413 very well.

Our annual Fall Fellowship is approaching quickly. I hope that all the chapters are getting ready because this is shaping up to be one of the best Fellowships ever. This Fellowship is the 25th Fellowship of Hi' Lo Ha Chy' A-La and many special events are being planned so this is one event that you will not want to miss.

As fall rolls around and school starts, I know that everyone is very busy with other activities besides Scouting. But I challenge each one of you to make the time for your troop, your chapter, and the Lodge. Get involved and you will be surprised just how fun this order can be.

Yours in Witahehui
Joel
