FALL FELLOWSHIP '91

--THE 8th WONDER OF THE WORLD--

The 26th annual Fall Fellowship weekend is just around the corner and with it comes the most action that an Arrowman could ever hope for. Scheduled for November 1st, 2nd, and 3rd at the Wynne Tri-County Baptist Youth Camp, "FUN" is one of the predominant themes that will be accompanying this weekend. Lodge chief Denny Bubrig had this to say about the upcoming weekend: "Guys, Fall Fellowship '91 has every right to be named a wonder of the world. Never before in the history of mankind has there been a weekend so chock full of fun and excitement. Make sure you are there to partake in this historic event."

Registration for the fellowship will begin at 5 p.m. Friday afternoon. Two excellent movies will be shown that night along with a cracker barrel and a wide variety of games to be played. The cost for the weekend is $16, which includes a fellowship patch, an event packet, camp rental, insurance, entertainment, and the best food you will ever have at an OA event.

The official dress for the weekend will be the scout uniform and sash. We will be sleeping in heated bunks with beds and mattresses so you will need only a sleeping bag or sheets. Arrowmen should also bring pen, paper, their OA handbooks, money for the trading post, money for dues if you have not yet paid them, and toiletries.

Saturday morning will start off with a hearty breakfast and continue with a session about arrowmen and the future they could set for themselves by seeking a chapter office. This session is put on by Steve Perry and Jesse Cartwright. After this session, the fun and activities really kick in with a Pre-Ordeal competition which all chapters are encouraged to participate in. Some more of the events Saturday include a 5-k run, Patch trading, a session on camp promotion, a lip sync competition, and a VIA luncheon for all new Ordeal members. There will also be chapter vs. chapter volleyball and basketball for anyone interested in a little Brotherly competition. All day Saturday, the OA trading post, under the direction of Lodge Secretary Daniel Kueter, will be selling any and all OA supplies along with refreshments to get you through the day.

After lunch, the traditional POW-WOW will begin. Last year the Pow-Wow was highlighted with Old-Styler David Dancer dislocating his knee and pulling several tendons in his thigh. This injury nearly ended his career as a dancer. This year,

"I want YOU at Fall Fellowship!!"

David is in charge of the Pow-Wow, and will try his hardest to make sure that no one else continues this tradition. Be there and see if David succeeds.

That night, after a supper that has been named "The mother of all feasts," every arrowman will witness the BIG SHOW, under the direction of Lodge 2nd Vice Scott Perry. At this time, the winner of the attendance contest will be announced and escorted to the front row. The show will be followed up with a tasty cracker barrel.

Sunday morning is the most important event of the fellowship. That morning after a short chapel service, the lodge convenes for the annual business meeting. At this time, the lodge officers and chapter officers for next year will be elected. If you want to be an officer next year, you must attend the fellowship. After this, there will be an awards ceremony followed by the traditional lodge closing.

Along with being the most exciting OA event, Fall Fellowship is also the most important. If you need transportation, contact your chapter chief or advisor. Don't miss out on the weekend of a lifetime. We look forward to seeing you there!!

104 INDUCTED AT ORDEAL

The twelfth annual Lodge-Wide Ordeal, held the first weekend of June was a tremendous success, resulting in the induction of 104 scouts into Lodge 413. The key three, consisting of Denny Bubrig, Donald Belk, and David Morris, were in charge of the Ordeal, and were also responsible for its success.

The weekend began with registration by Brady Morris, Sam Danehower, Nathan Reyna and Daniel Kueter. 80 arrowmen arrived, which brought the attendance total to 184 people. A special thanks goes out to Food Chairman Mike Garner and all of the cooks, who did a wonderful job preparing meals for all of these people.

Ordeal Master Scott Perry was in charge of all the work done on Saturday. Scott also received help from Camp Ranger Joe Smith who planned some of the work needing completion before camp. Due to the work by David Dancer and several key chapter officers and advisors, there were some great ceremonies both Friday and Saturday night.

Sunday Morning was opened with a chapel service that was followed by the Vigil Tap-Out. (See related Article.) The weekend ended with a Lodge meeting and the singing of the Order of the Arrow song.

A special thanks goes to the arrowmen who volunteered their services as elangomats. Without these people and many others whom we haven't mentioned, the Ordeal couldn't have been the wonderful weekend it was.

THE BET GOES ON

Many of the lodge's "Old Timers" will remember Fall Fellowships from years back when the chapters would compete against each other and see who could bring the most members to the fellowship. The losing chapter would perform an amusing as well as degrading service to the winning chapter, like serving dinner to the winners.

Although all chapters are still welcome to this Brotherly competition, the Lodge officers have gotten together and added a new twist to the bet. The Chapter that brings the highest percentage of members to Fall Fellowship will receive special VIP seating at the BIG SHOW along with complimentary refreshments from the Trading Post. This service will be provided via the Lodge Officers. The deadline for membership registration will be Saturday at noon. Remember, every arrowman from the winning chapter, not just the chapter officers, will receive this privilege. Arrowmen, if you ever needed another reason to attend Fellowship, this is it. You are important and you will help your chapter. HOPE TO SERVE YOU AT THE BIG SHOW!!

KLONDIKE WINTER CAMP

Sweet Don and Sweet Sixteen. What do these two things mean? Why the sixteenth annual Klondike Winter Camp of course!! Yes, Arrowmen, that's right, winter camp is just around the corner and with it comes the most fun you could ever have in just one weekend. The camp director is Donald Belk, so you know that the weather will be perfect, even if he does have to perform a miracle or two. The Program Director is Joseph Kueter and you can be assured that the staff he puts together will be the most enthusiastic in years. The dates of the Klondike are December 20, 21, and 22, so put them on your calendar and don't miss them.

Along with the tried and true classic cities of the Klondike, there will also be several new and exciting cities at camp this year. Every city has a satisfaction guarantee, and promises that you will earn up to 5 gold nuggets which can be used to purchase camping supplies and cooking utensils.

Arrowmen, it's been said many times that we need to promote Winter Camp and events. Let's all join together and see if we can promote Winter Camp and have a true happy holiday. Besides, when else can you prove that your troop can survive in the wilderness and come out above all other patrols. Don't be left out in the cold, be one of the few, the proud, the Klondike participants. Klondike '91; We're looking for a lot of good men.

Onward to Klondike!!!!

FOUR ARROWMEN FOUND WORTHY

This past June, four members of our lodge were recognized for their unrelenting service to the lodge over the past years. The following people were tapped out for Vigil Honor Candidacy at the lodge wide ordeal on June 2nd.

- David Dancer Shawnee Chapter
- David Cadenbach Ozark Chapter
- Bobby Norman Dixie Chapter
- Wayne Grommet Shawnee Chapter

Before they are to become full fledged Vigil Honor members, they must go through the Vigil Weekend in September. We wish these four the best of luck and hope that their hard work is sufficiently rewarded. All Vigil Honor members are encouraged to attend and should contact Vigil Chairman Danny Joe McHaffey if they have any questions.

SUMMER CAMP OUTSTANDING

The words "Cedar Valley 1991" should immediately conjure up great memories from all arrowmen who attended camp this year. This year's summer camp season was truly unique and possessed a level of enthusiasm and spirit higher than most years. There were many new fun and exciting changes in camp this year, thanks to "The Program People," Mike Caffey, Robert Tangeman, and Joel Linn. Also, a giant thanks goes out to Sam Reyna for his excellent job as camp director. The entire summer was full of fun and fellowship for both staff and campers alike. Congratulations to the Cedar Valley Staff on an outstanding job.

Another new program at camp this year was initiated by Lodge Chief Denny Bubrig, built upon by the Lodge Officers, and received a final polishing by Lodge 2nd Vice Scott Perry. The program was a new ordeal member orientation, that took place during one of the weeknights at camp. The new members learned more about the OA, Indian Dancing, the political structure of a lodge, and also witnessed the Ordeal ceremony again. This program was a success, and will be continued next year.

However, on a more serious note, Camp suffered a large setback this year. Attendance has steadily dropped over the years, and has hindered the Council. As arrowmen, our number one concern is the betterment of the Scouting program. It is never too soon to promote Cedar Valley '92. A strong camp helps make a strong lodge. To even begin to fulfill our obligation to our troop and council, we must immediately come forth and promote every unit event, whether it be a Fall camporee, Winter Camp, or even a troop cookout. Although camp was wonderful this year, we must continually strive to do our best to promote the Scouting program and all of its endeavors.

REMEMBRANCE

This section of The Legend is devoted to the memory of our Past Scout Executive Kenneth Ackret. For those of you who do not know, Ken passed away this summer due to a heart attack. Ken's entire life was devoted to scouting, and he helped countless boys mature into manhood.

I myself met Ken many times in my childhood, and every time he was kind and helpful to me. As an 11 year old boy and 1st year camper, Ken came up to me several times during camp and asked me how things were going. This more than anything helped me to make it through that week, and kept me active in scouting.

Words cannot express how much Ken did for the scouting program. His devotion and service have yet to be surpassed. The lodge hopes and believes that our new executive, Tom Kirshner, will be able to continue the work that Ken loved so much.

1991 Brotherhood Principles

45 SEAL MEMBERSHIP

On various weekends throughout this year's summer camp, a total of 45 Arrowmen found the true meaning of the Arrow by achieving their Brotherhood. Along with being the 2nd largest class of inductees ever, the Brotherhood class of '91 shares another unique record. Because of this year's Maverick week, the Lodge Officers put on 4 ceremonies instead of the regular 3-a-year. The first and third weeks saw 17 and 16 candidates respectively while 2nd week sported 10 and Maverick week a record 2. Also, because of the bad weather 2 ceremonies were put on in rain free areas while 2 took place in the circle. No other team has had exactly 1/2 of their ceremonies in the circle.

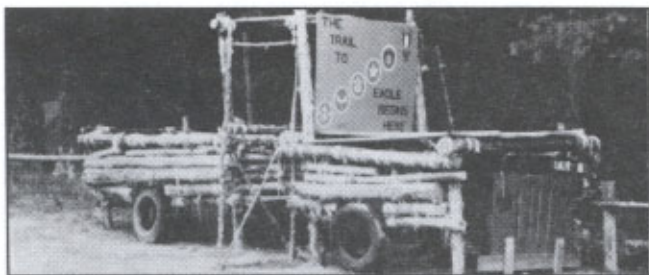

When you see these arrowmen sporting their fresh, clean new sashes at Fall Fellowship, CONGRATULATE them on their newfound knowledge. Obtaining this level of membership takes a lot of earnest hard work and we would like to recognize the members who took this step. While others were off at free swims or drinking Dr. Pepper at the Trading Post, these guys were memorizing questionnaires or making useful donations to the lodge.

If you will be eligible for Brotherhood in 1992 and are not sure if it is worth it, ask these guys how much it meant to them. You will hear nothing but good remarks.

So, once again--Congrats to the Lodge's newest Brotherhood members. Dedication like yours is what keeps the Lodge strong. And for those of you who have not yet reached this status, there is always next year. Brotherhood '92—Take The Next Step!!!!

1992 LODGE BANQUET

Coming up this January, the Lodge will convene for its fourth annual Lodge Banquet. The banquet is designed to give non-OA members a chance to see what the OA is about. The date is January 11, and the banquet will be at the Carl Reng Center Ballroom at ASU. Tickets are $10, and will soon be available at the scout office or from the Lodge Officers. Everyone is invited to come and we hope you will promote it to the fullest. Make plans now to attend and be sure to watch your next issue of The Legend for all the details.

Which camp vehicle would you rather drive to Fall Fellowship?

If you answered "neither" you chose wisely!

CREDITS

This edition of The Legend was compiled and edited by Daniel Kueter. A very special thank you is given to Bruce Smith for all of his help with the content of The Legend. Thanks to Donald Belk and Wayne Grommet for the pictures used in this edition. And finally, thanks to those arrowmen who gave of themselves willingly and addressed this edition. Those arrowmen are Steve Perry, Sam Danehower, Donald Belk, and Will Kueter.

CHIEFLY SPEAKING

My Brothers,

I hope this LEGEND finds you all doing well and enjoying the last days of summer.

I would like to first congratulate the new Ordeal members. Many chapters have already had activities and I hope you all are inspired to attend more. I would also like to congratulate the forty-five new Brotherhood members. You have all taken a tremendous step in the Order and you need to carry your new knowledge in leadership back to your troops.

Many times over the next few months, you will be hearing about camp promotion. My friends, attendance at camp was DOWN. As Arrowmen we are charged "to promote scout camping year-round," especially summer camp. When the time comes that you are asked to serve on a chapter camp promotion team, I challenge you, if you are able, to serve on this team helping to fulfill a sometimes forgotten purpose of the OA.

A lot of activities are beginning to appear on the calendar, one of those being Fall Fellowship. Besides being loads of fun, this is also an important time in that Chapter and Lodge officers are elected for next year. Make plans to attend so you can voice your opinion for your chapter's future!

Again, I hope you have all had a great summer, and I look forward to seeing you in the following months.

Yours in the Spirit,
Denny
