HI' LO HA CHY' A - LA

NATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF SCOUT HONOR CAMPERS
EASTERN ARK. AREA COUNCIL • BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

MAY 1993

WE NEED YOU AT ORDEAL '93!!

The fourteenth annual Lodge-wide Ordeal is "approaching swiftly as a flock of field crows flying black across the sun," which could only mean one thing. Every arrowman, new and old, is needed to attend in cheerful service to help clean camp for the upcoming summer. Ordeal week-end is scheduled for June 4-6, and will be located at Camp Cedar Valley outside Viola, AR.

Registration for the week-end will begin at 5 p.m. Friday evening and conclude at 8 p.m. The cost for the week-end is $13 for members, which covers the food costs, $23 for candidates, and totally FREE, that's right zilch, for Elangomats. The candidate's fee will cover food, a sash, handbook, dues, and a lodge flap. Some chapters are forming contingents to Ordeal to provide transportation. If you are needing help finding a ride, notify your chapter chief or advisor, but be sure to let them know ahead of time so they will be able to find enough transportation.

Friday night, the Pre-Ordeal ceremonies will begin at 9 p.m. sharp. All arrowmen should plan on attending these ceremonies and be prompt, so as not to disrupt them. Saturday's work will begin at 9 a.m. and continue throughout the day. Remember, this is the time to lend YOUR Cheerful Service for the betterment of Camp.

The Ordeal ceremonies Saturday night will begin at 8:30 p.m. in their respected sites. This will be the first year for the new chapter pairings and ceremonies, so let's give the candidates a ceremony to remember. Following the ceremonies will be the traditional cracker barrel accompanied with drumming, dancing, and sash-signing.

On Sunday morning there will be a chapel service followed by the 1993 Vigil Tap-Out. After the tapout, there will be short Chapter meetings to assign Big/Little Brothers followed by a Lodge meeting. The OA trading post will then open, promising to be well-stocked with bolos, handbooks, sashes, patches, and many more items.

When preparing for the week-end, arrowmen should remember a few important items to bring. You will need to bring your full scout uniform accompanied with sash, sleeping bag, work clothes/gloves, toiletries, and your registration money.

Camp needs to be it's best looking for all who attend this summer and can only be accomplished by every arrowman's 100% effort. Remember, there is a job waiting for you at Ordeal '93.

CCV IN '93

"Follow me to CCV in '93." This should be the quote of every arrowman to the fellow members of his unit promoting and encouraging camp attendance. This summer, Jerry Sallee will be Camp Director with Brad Barnett being his right hand man as Program Director. Camp this summer will be jam-packed with loads of fun during four weeks of regular camp, all including Maverick Camp, and also offering an all new High Adventure Week, a sharpshooters program, and canoe trips. There is a limit of 200 scouts per week, so make sure your scoutmaster registers your troop for the fun camp has to offer today.

As you read, almost all the staff positions have been filled. This means one thing: The stage is set; the actors poised; the play is ready to begin; all that is needed now is an audience. This is where all arrowmen come into performance. Last year, camp attendance dropped slightly; but last year is gone, and we can't wait to get back. As arrowmen, it is our duty to promote and encourage camping participation throughout the entire year and especially at Summer Camp. It is always easier to lead by example than to push with orders. Set the example by leading your troop to summer camp this year.

Your days of youth are gold which should be treasured and held dear to you. Make camp a lasting gold memory and adventure which you may remember for a lifetime. Hope to see you at CCV in '93!!

QUOTES FROM CCV/PTR STAFF MEMBERS

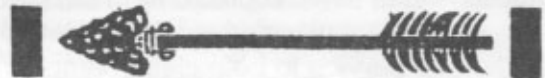

1. "Come to camp!" — Donald Belk
2. "Come try to split an arrow in my archery range." — John Travis
3. "You have a money back guarantee to leave the pool wet." — Joseph Kueter
4. "You won't leave my area knot knowing your knots." — Phillip O'Tinger
5. "Come take my merit badge class and learn to save the environment." — Zach Taylor

ATTENTION ELANGOMATS

This is just to remind you about the upcoming Ordeal. Please arrive as soon as possible Friday afternoon. Remember that the week-end is free. If you have any questions, or you are an arrowman reading this and not an Elangomat and would like to be one, you may contact John Travis at 781-3808. It isn't too late.

This true act of unselfish service will enable you to truly gain a higher knowledge of the Ordeal, and is one of the most needed services at Ordeal. Remember, too, that serving as an Elangomat will substitute for donating an Indian article for the Brotherhood membership.

ORDEAL MEMBERS ... LISTEN UP!

By now, you should have received a letter with Brotherhood requirements encouraging you to take the step to seal your membership in our Order. If you haven't yet, then please, contact me, Will Kueter at 935-7836 and I will make sure they are mailed to you.

Now you may just be wondering to yourself, why does this guy keep bugging me about getting this Brotherhood? It is because the lodge officers don't want to see this excellent opportunity pass you by another year. Brotherhood membership is sought by many arrowmen seeking to reaffirm their belief in the high purposes of the Order. Those who complete the Brotherhood requirements will be called out at the Friday night OA campfire and then will be participating in the ceremony. Hopefully you will take this challenge to receive one of the most rewarding experiences during your OA membership. The cost for completing the Brotherhood is $15 payable at camp. The money covers dues for one year and the cost of your sash. HOPE TO SEE YOU AT THE BROTHERHOOD CEREMONY!!

VIGIL HONOR TAP-OUT

On Sunday of the Lodge-Wide Ordeal, the 1993 Vigil Honor recipients will be tapped out in the Vigil Honor Tapout. This level of membership is the highest honor to be given to an OA member.

Vigil Honor cannot be earned. It is bestowed upon those members who give themselves unselfishly and have given an outstanding amount of time, effort, and dedication to our Lodge and the scouting program in general.

After the tap-out, those selected are candidates until they complete the Vigil Weekend this fall. All Vigil members are encouraged to attend this weekend.

CALL-OUTS COMPLETED

At this time, with all Spring Campores successful, all four chapters have completed with flying colors their chapter call-outs. The Lodge Secretary would like to send out a very sincere thanks to everyone who helped out when needed on a Unit Election Team and who participated in a Call-Out Ceremony. Also, special thanks to the Chapter Secretaries who conducted and performed the OA unit elections excellently.

BROTHERHOOD OF CHEERFUL SERVICE

An old man, going on a lone highway came at evening, cold and gray
to a chasm, vast and deep and wide,
through which was flowing a sullen tide.
The old man crossed the twilight dim-
that sullen stream had no fears for him;
but he turned, when he reached the other side,
and he built a bridge to span the tide.

"Old man," said a fellow pilgrim near,
"You are wasting strength in building here.
"Your journey will end with the ending day;
"You never again must pass this way,
"You have crossed the chasm, deep and wide,
"Why build you the bridge at eventide?"

The builder lifted his old gray head.
"Good friend, in the path I've come," he said
"There followeth after me today
"A youth whose feet must pass this way.
"This chasm that has been naught to me
"To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be.
"He, too, must cross in the twilight dim;
"Good friend, I am building the bridge for him."

We danced at our new section Conclave. How about you?

If you're tired of the same old everyday camping, come to camp Cedar Valley where the ultimate adventure awaits you.

CHIEFLY SPEAKING

I hope this letter finds you doing well. I want to start this letter by thanking all of you for your work thus far. This year has just started and is already proving to be one of the best our Lodge will ever see.

Our next Lodge-Wide event is Ordeal. It is very important that every arrowmen attend. Our camp is the heart of camping in our area. It is basically the only place where our whole council has a chance to gather for fun and fellowship. This year our camp is in very bad need of work and will only get done by everyone attending Ordeal. So come to Ordeal and help get camp ready for the summer.

On the subject of camping, Summer Camp is right around the corner and that means the major fun is ready to arrive. In my first letter, I wrote of attendance at camp. This goal was for each arrowman to bring at least 75% of his troop to camp with him. Camp is the place where you can advance, make new friends, and be yourself. This year's camp staff and program is the best in many years if not the best.

Conclave was Great! I want to thank especially Wayne Grommet, and all the drivers who helped with transportation. And I also want to thank the show staff and dancers who represented our Lodge well. We reached our goal of taking 65 arrowmen to Conclave by taking 67. I also want to thank each and every one person who attended Conclave and helped prove that Hi' Lo Ha Chy' A-La is the best Lodge. I want for all of you to keep up the hard work and never forget to seek the Vision of Service. I'll see all of you first at Ordeal, and then at Camp.

Striving to Thrive in Brotherhood and Cheerful Service,
Sam Danehower
