SCREAM FOR FALL FELLOWSHIP!

Well, it's that time of the year again. You know exactly what it is that I'm talking about; don't you? Well, for those of you who don't know, IT'S TIME FOR THE ONE AND ONLY 1998 FALL FELLOWSHIP!!!! Everybody who's anybody will be there. Come join the "in" crowd and be cool at Fall Fellowship. (Notice: This is the one time that is okay to give in to peer pressure!)

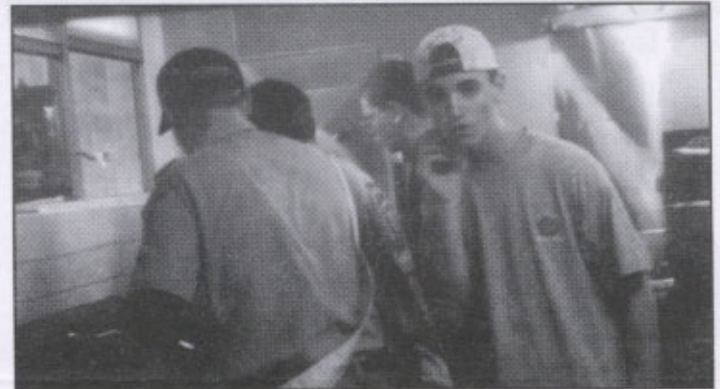

This once in a lifetime opportunity will be starting on October 30. It's gonna take place at the Wynne Baptist Youth Camp in Wynne, AR. Registration will be between 5:00 P.M. and 10:00 P.M. If you want to be super cool, don't come before 5:00 P.M. The cost for the entire fun-fill weekend is a mere $15.00. This special low rate covers everything including food and a neat patch. At 7:00 P.M., a Halloween Carnival will begin. There will be many hauntin' Halloween games, and they'll be free, too! Extra cool grab bags will be sold for $1.00 to raise money for camperships. Also, everyone should bring a supa' dupa' fly costume to wear during the festivities. Prizes will be given to those with the coolest costumes. To end the evening, a crackerbarrel will take place. Holy cow! All that will be happenin' in just one night! Just think! There is more, much, much more!

Then after dreams of sugarplums dancing in your heads, you will awaken to discover that the fun has only just begun. After breakfast, we'll mosey on over to the Opening Ceremony.

Then, the Brotherhood run will separate the men from the boys.

Then, you can learn some nifty stuff in the morning sessions. You can learn lots about the O.A. and related stuff. We will also be paid a visit by some really cool frontiersmen who will be teaching us some neat things.

The Native American Pow Wow will begin in the afternoon. The Pow Wow will consist of individual and group dances. It promises to be an excellent event.

Later that afternoon, it will be time for the funniest display of talent ever. That's right! It's the Talent Show. I've heard that the Chapters have been perfecting their acts. So, look out and get ready to laugh.

After dinner, it will be the event you have all been waiting for - The Big Show. This year's show is being written by the Lodge Second-Vice, Keith Alexander. The show is certain to be a hit.

On Sunday, after a great breakfast, there will be a chapel service. Following chapel, there will be an awards ceremony. Next will be the Lodge's Annual Business Meeting. At the business meeting, the 1999 Lodge and Chapter Officers will be elected. Lastly, everyone will check out and head for home.

Don't forget! You will need to bring a sleeping bag, toiletries, and lots o' spendin' cash for the O.A. Trading Post. We will be selling the 50th Anniversary merchandise. There will be shirts, patches, and much, much more.

So everyone, come join the crowd. Fall Fellowship is sure to be more fun than a barrel o' monkeys. Hope to see ya there.

PAY YOUR DUES

When was the last time you paid your dues? Dues are only $8.00 (or $9.00 if you are delinquent) for a whole year's worth of extravagant luxuries. You will receive our quarterly newsletter, just like the one you are reading right now. Plus, every time you pay your dues, you get a brand-spankin' new membership card. Don't forget to remember to bring some extra money for dues to Fall Fellowship.

VIGIL HONOR CLASS OF 1998

The Vigil Honor is the highest level of membership in our Order. It is given to those who give unyielding service to the Lodge, our camp and our council. At Ordeal weekend, three people were announced as candidates worthy of this high honor. They were:

J. Patrick Dailey - Arrowhead Chapter
Bobby Kelly - Delta Chapter
Jim Dailey - Arrowhead Chapter

A record number of Vigil members turned out on the weekend of September 25-27 to participate in the Vigil and honor the three incoming members. A special thanks goes out to Vigil Chairman, John Travis for putting together an excellent staff for the weekend that consisted of principals T.L. Davis and Matt Yancey, chief cook and bottle washer, Ray Williams and his unruly crew Joel Linn, Jerry Veteto, Jane Comstock and Dean Massey. The food was great and all who participated reported having a large time.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO AT A KLONDIKE CAMP?

I'll tell you what you can do at Klondike. You can take your cool sled, and go to all the cities, and do a fun activity, and loot all the gold nuggets you can carry. All you have to do is go and have fun! Yes! you get paid to have fun! Isn't it great! I can hardly believe it myself! See ya there! Hey, and maybe with all this El Nino junk that has been goin' on since last year, it just might snow! I guess you'll have to come and find out for yourself.

We got our Brotherhood. Will you get it next summer?

MEMBERSHIPS SEALED

This summer, 37 of Hi' Lo Ha Chy' A-La's Ordeal members took the leap of faith and earned their Brotherhood. After they strengthened the ties of brotherhood, built upon the fire of cheerfulness, and eased the burdens from the shoulders of their brothers, they were able to proudly display their bars! Never again will they hear, "Hey, did you wash your sash in bleach? Because, YOUR BARS ARE MISSING!"

These guys deserve a pat on the back and a hearty congratulations, because instead of taking a nap or hanging out at the pool, these guys were learning about what the Wimachitendienk was really all about.

And a friendly word of advice to all you Ordeal members out there. GET YOUR BROTHERHOOD. I don't think you will ever talk to an Arrowman that regrets taking that step.

MEMORIES OF A SUMMER

Those of us who attended summer camp at the beautiful Camp Cedar Valley could tell you all about what a truly wonderful summer it really was. The weather was perfect, the campfires were hilarious, even the food was excellent. If you did not go to camp this summer, I can only say I'm sorry, you truly missed out. But, hey, look on the bright side - you always have next year.

NATIONAL ORDER OF THE ARROW CONFERENCE

19 arrowmen from Lodge 413 traveled all the way up to the corn capital of the world, Iowa State in Ames, Iowa for peachy-keen Order of the Arrow experience.

Words could not even begin to describe how much fun this trip was. To feel the energy of over 8,000 arrowmen from all over the country, to see all the shows, to hear recordings of speeches made by E. Urner Goodman himself, it was truly amazing. It can best be summed up by the Conference theme, "Memories of the Past, A Vision of the Future."

At the Native American Dance Competition, our Lodge's own Patrick Kelly got into the top 10 out of the entire Conference for Old Style. We are very proud of him and all the other members of our Lodge who competed in the many different competitions at NOAC.

Possibly the greatest thing about the trip was the brotherhood that everyone experienced, not with our fellow Lodge members, but with arrowmen from all over our country.

The next NOAC will be in Knoxville, TN in the year 2000. If you are interested in going but you think that it is too expensive, begin saving your money and making your plans immediately. An experience like this does not come around too often. Take advantage of it while you can.

FIRST ANNUAL LODGE POW WOW

The first annual Lodge Pow wow was held on September 19 in Clarendon. This was a truly remarkable event. Sessions were taught during the day. Many arrowmen learned everything there is to know about how to make outfitting, how to dance, how to drum, and many other valuable skills.

Then at 6:00 P.M., the party started. With the live drum team that would have blown your mind, many of the dancers got to strut their stuff in front of an enormous crowd. It was spectacular.

If you missed out for some reason or another, don't fret, because plans for the second annual Pow wow are already being made. And trust me, you don't want to miss out again.

63 MORE JOINED US

Ordeal weekend! Ahhh, what a wonderful way to start the summer. Wouldn't you agree? I'll bet sixty three of our newest arrowmen would agree with me.

After a weekend filled with scant food, arduous labor, and thoughtful silence, all of the candidates were finally awarded a pretty white and red sash.

On Sunday, after a short chapel service, three very fine arrowmen were found worthy of Vigil Honor.

Ordeal was truly a memorable experience. The ceremony teams were absolutely fabulous. The candidates and members all did a wonderful job at making Camp Cedar Valley an even more beautiful place. And what summer would be complete without mustard and bologna sandwiches.

CHIEFLY SPEAKING

My Brothers,

It is with great pride and joy that I write to you.

We have had an outstanding year so far. At Ordeal we inducted 63 new arrowmen into our membership, accomplished a great amount of work, and had a great time. Summer camp was by far one of the best in recent years. At Summer Camp, 37 arrowmen sealed their membership in our order. After Summer Camp, we took an enthusiastic contingent to NOAC. Also, just recently, our lodge held it first annual pow wow.

The next major destination on the horizon is Fall Fellowship. This Fall Fellowship is expected to be one of the best Fall Fellowships of all time. Many new things will be occurring, in addition to all the other events that you have grown to love. If you are looking for a good time, Fall Fellowship is the place for you.

The 50th year of our lodge is coming rapidly to a close. Please take advantage of all the opportunities our lodge is offering.

Mindful of our high tradition.

Patrick
