CONCLAVE

WHO hasn't heard of Conclave? If you haven't you are missing the Rave. 413 is coming in force to Camp Pioneer in Mena, AR. Conclave is the Fall Fellowship of the Section (the area the Section covers includes Lodges in Arkansas & Texas). Conclave, April 28-30, will be one of the most unique experiences you will ever have the opportunity to attend.

There will be fellowship, dance and principle competition, A "RAVE" (techno-party), field sports and much, much more! If you ever wanted to go to an event with people from all over, not just from your lodge, this is what you have been waiting for. There will be training sessions on Backpacking Gear, doing a good Eagle project, and the One-Day Project.

Enclosed is a registration form for YOU to fill out and turn in to the Scout Office. The Section will be sending you a copy in a week or two in case you forget or lose this one. Remember your Lodge needs your participation, so don't slack and turn in this form ASAP. You will be contacted by one of our contingent leaders, Nonnie Carroll or Steve Lynn, after you register.

FOUND: Large hickey. See Kyle Nichols.

LOST: Phone book with numbers of all Mountain Home girls with over 3 teeth. Call Drew Crawford.

What do I need to bring? A full class A uniform, basic camping gear such as a sleeping bag, etc., and any Indian outfitting if you are a dancer. Tents will be provided. Cost is $24 if you register by March 31st. After that, it will cost you $29.

M-m-m-m-m.... CHEESE!!!

There was a bounty of a feast to be had at the O. A. Lodge Banquet. If you missed it, you definitely need to get out among the living and mingle. There was everything from the Awesome O. A. Slide Presentation to delicious chocolate pie.

After the fine food, 67 new members were acknowledged as well as 35 members who have sealed their commitment to the Order and our Lodge with completion of their Brotherhood. The officers recognized all the individuals who helped significantly throughout the year, such as Elangomats, Platoon Leaders, the food chairmen of Ordeal and Fall Fellowship, Ordeal Principals, and the officer's mummies.

The 1999 Youth Arrowman of the Year was David Butler, and the 1999 Adult Arrowman of the Year was Mr. Mike Nichols. Delta and Neaypi were named as quality chapters for 1999, and Delta Chapter won Chapter of the Year for a second year in a row.

LLS?

This year's officers were trained at NLS, Boy Scouting's highest available training, and plan to give back to their members the best they can. As a result, 98 Lodge Chief Patrick Dailey and the lodge officers are organizing a Lodge Leadership Seminar or LLS on October 6-8. This training is open to everyone, but will be focused on running a lodge. This training is designed for Arrowmen who are planning to serve as chapter of lodge officers in the future. More information will be provided in a later Legend, so mark your calendar!

Chiefly Speaking

My Brothers,

The feeling of writing to you for the first time is an indescribable mixture of emotions. Last year was an exceptional year for the lodge and I am honored to be chosen to fill such big shoes. I would like to thank everyone for your confidence and assure you that I will do everything I can to make this year the best year in lodge history.

Secondly, I am excited, because this lodge is the strongest I can remember it ever being and I am convinced that this is the best lodge in the world. Our membership and attendance are up, and this year's slate of lodge and chapter officers is outstanding. This means that we all have a lot to work with and a lot of potential.

I encourage you to be active this year, because the lodge will have a lot to offer this year. The officers have many ambitious goals for the year, all of which are centered on improving the program.

This Legend, in the spirit of modesty and accuracy, was produced thanks to Don Porter, J.R. Doyle, and Garner Publishing Inc.®

I just returned from a planning meeting for Conclave, and I am convinced that Conclave will be better than ever before. Drew and Kyle already have plans for Ordeal well under way and the organization and quality of ceremonies should be exceptional. J.R. is also continuing to improve lodge communication and publications.

If anyone has any ideas on how to improve events or wants to know how he can be involved in the lodge, do not hesitate to contact me. I will do everything I can to make this year fun and productive. With your help, this Lodge can "Preserve the Traditions."

Centered on the noble goal,

Don
