LODGE BANQUET... DANGER!!!

YEE-HAH! I can't begin to tell you how hard we partied at the 2001 Lodge Banquet, so I asked some arrowmen to sum up the evening in a couple of words. Here's what they had to say:

Mike Garner- "Dude, where's my car?"

Jim Dailey- "I'm the real Jim Dailey"

The Rock- "Know your role and eat it!"

R2D2- "Bleep Do-weep, kweep, Beep"

After everyone had eaten themselves loony, the program began with an invocation by Adam Long and Don Porter leading in the Opening. Jim Dailey also spoke of the adult's role in the order. Then, recognition was given for various achievements made throughout the year. The 2000 Chapter Officers were given their props, along with Chapter and NOAC Principles, Elangomats, Food Chairmen, Platoon Leaders, Contingent Leaders, and new Ordeal, Brotherhood, and Vigil Honor members.

After everyone had received their spiffy new plaques, past Lodge Advisor and Lifetime Member of our lodge Donald Belk stepped up to the microphone and inspired the crowd with tales from the crypt about his days as a Lodge Advisor and the bright future of our Lodge.

Kyle Nichols swears in the 2001 Lodge and Chapter officers.

And then the big daddies were given out. The Youth Arrowman of the Year went to the current Arrowhead Chief, Steven Price. The Adult Arrowman of the Year was awarded to an Arrowhead member, the mack-daddy himself, Kevin Dunham. Hey Kev, could you do one of those neat dances of yours?

Then, the arrowmen in attendance were given a very special treat in that they were witness to two new inductees into our esteemed Lodge Hall of Fame. Patrick Dailey, who was the Lodge Chief during our lodge's 50th year, and past Lodge Advisor Mike Garner were rewarded for their very hard work and dedication to our Lodge with this very high honor. Finally (pause for effect) Chapter of the Year went to Delta Chapter for the third year in a row. Delta Chapter also earned the Quality Chapter award.

We were then blown away again with an amazing slide show, which was followed up by the installation of the 2001 Lodge Officers. The OA Song was then sung and the 2000 Lodge candle was extinguished for the last time.

"...to defend the Constitution of the United...wait a second, this is the wrong oath!"

Things have started out very good in Arrowhead Chapter this year. At Lodge Banquet, we were honored to have both Founder's Day Award winners, Steven Price and Kevin Dunham, and both newly inducted Hall of Fame members, Patrick Dailey and Mike Garner as members of Arrowhead. Our congrats go out to Delta Chapter for earning Chapter of the Year. We are currently working on a new patch design, so if you are interested in submitting a design, turn it in to Steven Price before Ordeal. Be sure to come to Conclave, because we should be competing in the Pre-Ordeal competition, and also be extra sure to come to Ordeal, because our ceremonies should kick some hiney this year, and there is lots of cheerful service to be done!

Delta Chapter is off to a great start this year. We started it off by having an officers' meeting to decide how to start the year off. In February, we had a Chapter meeting in Holly Grove to decide on ceremony principles, and to keep everyone informed on upcoming events. We then had on officers' meeting to get ready for this year's call-out and to make sure that all of the participants are learning their parts. In short, Delta Chapter is ready for the year!

We have selected our ceremony principles for the year and have been working toward our call-out. Also, we will have a Chapter meeting at spring camporee. The Neaypi Chapter officers would like to urge all of our Chapter's members to come to the events and show some Chapter spirit!

Conclave!

Ah! Don't you just love that time of year? The birds are singing, the flowers are blooming, the sun is shining. Enough about Spring silly goose, let's get down to the nitty gritty. It's Conclave time! Conclave is an annual Sectional event in which all of the lodges in our Section, SR3B, come together for a weekend of Fellowship, which will be held on April 27-29 at Gus Blass Scout Reservation in Demascus, AR. Be sure to bring money for the trading post, a sleeping bag, and Scout uniform.

Joke for the Legend- A devastating flood comes, so a man prays to God to save him. Soon, a man with a boat comes, but the man waves it off, because he believes that God will save him. Pretty soon, another man with another boat comes, but he is waived off by the man. A helicopter comes by, but the man waives it off also. Pretty soon, the flood waters rise very high, and the man drowns. When he gets to heaven, the man asks, "God, why didn't you rescue me?" God said, "I sent two boats and a helicopter."

CHIEFLY SPEAKING

Dear Brothers,

I come to you in my first Legend as a confident and confirmed chief. The year is well under way, but as most things in life, the road is bumpy. Now don't misunderstand me, most things are going great. So far, everyone has been working hard and doing a great job of getting things done. However, due to some unforeseen problems, the attendance at Elangomat/Principal Training was very poor. In order to have a great Ordeal, we must have great Elangomats and Principals. So please, step forward now. We all need you. If not for yourself, then for the future of our Lodge. If you feel you can help in any way for Ordeal, please contact Drew Tolson or any of the Lodge Officers. We really need your help to pull this off.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Spring Camporees..... April 20-22
Conclave.....April 27-29
Adult Work Weekend.....May 4-6
Ordeal Weekend.....June 1-3
NOTE: For Jim Dailey to plan for summer camp and to secure his staff, more troops are needed to sign up for Boy Scout Summer Camp 2001. Our first duty as arrowmen is to promote camping.

I would now like to thank all of you who have been working hard on all of the activities going on right now. You're doing a great job! I leave you with these words of inspiration; your Lodge Officers like to use the phrase, "All for one and one for all." Now if you don't understand what that means, I'll break it down for you. It means all of us for the Lodge and the Lodge for all of us.

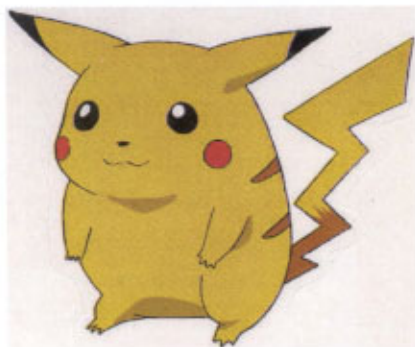

Carpe Diem,

Nihillatchi

THANK Y'ALL , IT'S BEEN GREAT!
